

ATLANTIC AVIATION AND FLIGHT CENTER LLC CORPORATE REGULATIONS
REGARDING FLIGHT TRAINING IN OWNER AIRCRAFT

- 1) The aircraft owner, agrees to add Atlantic Aviation and Flight Center LLC (AAFC) designated Certified Flight Instructor as an additional insured to the owner's aircraft liability policy. If the owner refuses to add an AAFC Certified Flight Instructor to the owner's aircraft insurance policy then the owner shall furnish a Waiver of Subrogation from the owner's insurance company to Atlantic Aviation and Flight Center LLC.
- 2) The owner will provide a copy of the written verification of the additional insured and/or Waiver of Subrogation to Atlantic Aviation and Flight Center LLC prior to flight training in the owner's aircraft.
- 3) The owner agrees to provide AAFC authorized representative(s) complete access to all maintenance records, airworthiness and registration information pertaining to the owner's training aircraft upon verbal notification. AAFC representative(s) will defer flight training in the owner's aircraft until the documentation is provided and reviewed by AAFC.
- 4) AAFC agrees to provide flight training services in the owner aircraft to the extent of the requirements of the course of training. However, AAFC reserves the right to refuse flight training in the owner aircraft should the Pilot in Command deem there is a potential safety issue or violation of the Federal Aviation Regulations.
- 5) The owner agrees that ANY violation of an authorized AAFC instructor's written or verbal endorsement, either willfully or unknowingly, shall be grounds for IMMEDIATE termination of flight training, and the aircraft owner agrees to hold harmless AAFC for ANY DAMAGE or DEATH to person's or property or violations of the Federal Aviation Regulations resulting from the violation of any endorsement.
- 6) The owner agrees to remain in compliance with all required aircraft and instrument inspections of the Federal Aviation Regulations.
- 7) Any time the student pilot is acting as Pilot In Command of the owner aircraft, the owner will hold harmless AAFC for any DEATH or DAMAGE to property or persons.
- 8) AAFC reserves the right to terminate flight training in the owner aircraft at any time due to noncompliance with the above agreement.
- 9) This agreement will be null and void upon the termination of the flight training in the owner aircraft.
